

This is in response to the proposed LPFM that could replace the KLOVE station that my family and I enjoy listening to nearly 24 hours a day. KLOVE broadcasts a positive and encouraging programming that may not be the case if LPFM is put into place. It is in the public's best interest to continue to allow KLOVE to reach the several thousand listeners that it does now.